

"Film is a creative canvas and the things that I am passionate about will be displayed."

Melvin James is the Director of the new sports drama Honeybee. He learned his craft by working under such acclaimed directors as Sidney Lumet, Mike Newell and Ron Howard. James worked in various capacities on such films as The Devil's Own, Donnie Brasco, and Godzilla. James received rave reviews for his feature film directorial debut King of Hearts, a romantic comedy starring newcomer Kal Cauthen and veteran actor Tony Wilkes ("Just Another Girl on the IRT").

"I want you to leave the theater thinking and taking what you've seen and heard back home. I've been accused of trying to change the world. In my defense, I say that there is definitely room for improvement."
